FOXIE'S BLEEDING BAND NEWS

Latest Stuff

The summer is upon us, Festival season fast approaches and we're gearing up for some serious folkin'. It promises to be rip-roaring and we are well looking forward to it.

You'll probably gather from our website that the vast majority of stuff is on the other side of the channel and we even have a trip to Vienna in Austria earmarked. While madfiddler will be with us for most of the gigs, the Austrian one is a bit different as it will be purely acoustic and we'll be joined by multi-instrumentalist Ewan, instead of madfiddler. Yes, we promised you a varied line-up and that is what will happen.

Last Saturday (27th June) we met up again with the Oysterband, and, for the first time, Seth Lakeman. The festival, in Bonfeld,

Germany, was crackin', great crowd and a great atmosphere!

On the transport front, yup we know most of you don't care what we arrive in as long as we get there, we've splashed the cash we ain't got, put ourself into some seriously worrying debt and gone back to the old (trusty & rusty) Ford Trannie. It may be oldish but it's the newest thing we've ever had and it's like a Rolls-Royce compared to an LDV and actually goes faster than 65mph! Wow! Nose bleed time.

Live Album - Out At last!

Simply this.....have you downloaded it yet? It's free! Go get it, it's on our site and freebies ain't gonna last forever, especially as it seems, according to important people who analyse the economic situation, the deepest recession for 70 years is now over. Err, yea, right. Must be time for a change of Govt. then.....Just be careful what you wish for as dreams turn into nightmares and nightmares do come true, trust me. Another 18 years of Tory Govt...or worse judging by the Euro election results, no thanks.
